PROCLAMATIONS.

Lieutenant-Governor.

CANADA:

PROVINCE OF BRITISH COLUMBIA.

GEORGE THE FIFTH, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and of the British Dominions beyond the Seas, KING, Defender of the Faith, Emperor of India.

To all to whom these presents shall come—
GREETING.

A PROCLAMATION.

WM. D. CARTER, { WHEREAS in and by section 4 of chapter 147 of Deputy Attorney-General. { the "Revised Statutes of British Columbia, 1924," being the "Liquor-control Plebiscites Act," it is provided that the Lieutenant-Governor in Council shall fix by Proclamation the date for taking the vote on any question to be submitted to the electors under the provisions of the said Act, and shall order the issue of writs in His Majesty's name for taking the vote, and shall determine the form of the writs, and shall fix the date for the return of the writs; and

Whereas Our said Lieutenant-Governor, by and with the advice of Our Executive Council, has been pleased to direct, by Order in Council in that behalf, that the question set out in the form of ballot contained in the said section shall be submitted to a vote of the electors of the Nelson Electoral District, and that the date of taking the said vote shall be the 23rd day of February, 1927, and that a Writ in the form provided by the said Order in Council shall issue, to bear date the 14th day of January, 1927, and to be returnable on or before the 10th day of March, 1927.

Now KNOW YE that We do by these presents proclaim and declare that the date for taking the vote of the electors in the Nelson Electoral District on the question set out in the form of ballot contained in section 3 of the "Liquor-control Plebiscites Act" shall be the 23rd day of February, 1927, and that a Writ as aforesaid shall issue, to bear date the 14th day of January, 1927, and to be returnable on or before the 10th day of March, 1927.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, We have caused these Our Letters to be made Patent and the Great Seal of Our said Province to be hereunto affixed.

WITNESS, His Honour ROBERT RANDOLPH BRUCE, Lieutenant-Governor of Our said Province, this 14th day of January, in the year of Our Lord one thousand nine hundred and twenty-seven, and in the seventeenth year of Our Reign.

By Command.

Amending Certificate of Approval.

WHEREAS the Duncan Utilities, Limited, is a Company incorporated under the provisions of the "Companies Act" (R.S.B.C. 1924, chapter 38), whose objects and powers as set out in its certificate of incorporation published in the British Columbia Gazette of the 17th day of June, 1926, at page 2052, extend to and include the construction and operation of works for the supply and utilization of water:

And whereas the Corporation of the City of Duncan was on the 23rd day of October, 1923, granted a certificate of the approval of its waterworks undertaking and is the holder of Conditional Licences Nos. 6415 and 7348, authorizing the diversion, carriage, and distribution of water out of Skinner Creek and Cowichan River respectively for waterworks purposes:

And whereas, being thereunto authorized by an Order of His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor in Council made under the provisions of section 14 of the "Water Act," the said Corporation of the City of Duncan has sold and transferred to the said the Duncan Utilities, Limited, the said conditional licences and the undertakings to which they are appurtenant:

And whereas the territory within which the powers granted by the said conditional licences and certificate of approval of undertaking is limited to the area included in the Corporation of the City of Duncan:

And whereas the pipes and other works used for the diversion, carriage, and distribution of the said water extend to certain distances outside the said area:

And whereas the said the Duncan Utilities, Limited, by petition filed the 13th day of November, 1926, prays that the said certificate of approval of undertaking and the said conditional licences may be amended so as to authorize the operation of works and the diversion, carriage, and distribution of the said water beyond the limits of the said City of Duncan:

And whereas the period within which objections to the said petition may be filed has expired and no objection has been filed:

And whereas it is expedient in the public interest that the prayer of the said petition be granted:

This is to certify that the certificate of approval of its undertaking granted to the Corporation of the City of Duncan on the 23rd day of October, 1923, is hereby amended by striking out the words "the City of Duncan" where they occur in the ninth paragraph, and by substituting therefor the words "a radius of two (2) miles of the post-office in the City of Duncan, situate at the corner of Craig and Kenneth Streets."

This certificate shall not in any way be deemed to be an approval of the plans of any works covered by the proposed undertaking, or to authorize the construction of any such works, but shall have the effect only of a certificate issued under the provisions of section 36 of the "Water Act," and shall be subject to such provisions.

Further Certificate of Approval.

WHEREAS on the 8th day of July, 1920, the Corporation of the City of Courtenay was granted a certificate of the approval of its undertaking relating to the diversion, carriage, distribution, and sale of water out of Brown's River, a tributary of Puntledge River, for waterworks purposes:

And whereas in pursuance thereof there was issued to the said Corporation on the 23rd day of June, 1921, Conditional Water Licence No. 5628, authorizing the diversion of 250,000 gallons of water a day out of said Brown's River for the purposes aforesaid:

And whereas in order to secure a constant supply of the said quantity the said Corporation finds that it is necessary to construct reservoirs and to store therein certain of the waters of the said Brown's River:

And whereas for the purpose aforesaid the said Corporation on the 26th day of August, 1926, did make application for a licence to store 2,000 acre-feet of water in Kilakilama Lakes, tributaries of the said Brown's River:

And whereas the said Corporation has, after due notice by petition filed the 2nd day of September, 1926, petitioned for the amendment of the said certificate of approval of undertaking dated the 8th day of July, 1920, and for the enlargement of its rights thereunder to include its proposed storage undertaking and to extend the territory within which it may exercise its powers, in so far as the same relate to the diversion, carriage, storage, distribution, and sale of water for waterworks purposes, to all lands situated within a radius of four and one-half miles in a southerly direction and six miles in other directions from the post-office in the said city:

And whereas no objection to the said petition has been filed:

This is to certify that the undertaking of the Corporation of the City of Courtenay as set out in its said petition (in so far as the said undertaking relates to the storage of water in connection with its waterworks system) is hereby approved, subject to the terms and conditions of the "Water Act" and to the following additional terms and conditions:—

Any licence or licences which may hereafter be issued in respect of the said application shall, notwithstanding the issue of this certificate, be subject to readjustment by the Board of Investigation.

The construction of works for the storage of 800 acre-feet of the water applied for shall be commenced on or before the 1st day of September, 1927, and shall be completed to the satisfaction of the Comptroller of Water Rights on or before the 31st day of December, 1927.

The construction of works for the storage of the residue of the water applied for shall be proceeded with from time to time as the demand for water shall warrant.

The territory within which the Corporation may exercise its powers, in so far as the same relate to the undertaking hereby approved and to the undertaking approved on the 8th day of July, 1920, shall be the area lying within a radius of four and one-half ( $4\frac{1}{2}$ ) miles in a southerly direction, between Comox Harbour and Puntledge River, and within a radius of six (6) miles in other directions from the intersection of Alice Street with Isabel Street, in the said City of Courtenay, and the certificate of approval of undertaking granted to the said Corporation on the 8th day of July, 1920, is hereby amended accordingly.

This certificate shall not in any way be deemed to be an approval of the plans of any works covered by the proposed undertaking, or to authorize the construction of any such works, but shall have the effect only of a certificate issued under the provisions of section 36 of the "Water Act," and shall be subject to such provisions.

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM RULES AND ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

Rule 76.

ALL APPLICATIONS for Private Bills, properly the subject of legislation by the Legislative Assembly of British Columbia, within the purview of the "British North America Act, 1867"—whether for the erection of a Bridge, the making of a Railway, Tramway, Turnpike Road, Telegraph or Telephone Line; the construction or improvement of a Harbour, Canal, Lock, Dam, Slide, or other like work; the granting of a right of Ferry; the incorporation of any particular trade or calling, or of any Joint-stock Company; or otherwise for granting to any individual or individuals any exclusive or peculiar rights or privileges whatever, or for doing any matter or thing which in its operation would affect the rights or property of other parties, or relate to any particular class of the community, or for making any amendment of a like nature to any former Act—shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant. Such notice shall be published in the British Columbia Gazette and in one daily and one weekly newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. When the proposed Private Bill is of a local nature, the notice shall be furthermore published in some newspaper in the electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper therein, then in the nearest electoral district in which a newspaper is published. Such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of six weeks during the interval of time between the close of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

72. No Petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any Report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no Motion for the suspension or modification of this Rule shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committee charged with consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this Rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the Petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required as herein mentioned, unless the House shall order to the contrary. Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session, a printed copy of such Bill, a copy of the Petition to be presented to the House, together with copies of the notices published. Such publication to be proved by affidavit or declaration to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House. At the time of depositing the Bill, the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars. If a copy of the Bill, Petition, and notices shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session, or if the Petition has not been presented within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees paid shall be returned.

77. Before any Petition, praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a Toll Bridge, is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Rule 76, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts and vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

78. All Private Bills for Acts of Incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference the clauses of the General Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills. Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the General Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Rule shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

82. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in Small Pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring  $10\frac{3}{4}$  inches by  $7\frac{1}{2}$  inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each paper; the numbering of the lines is not to be run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

By Rule 83, a model form of Railway Bill is adopted. A copy of same can be obtained upon application to the Clerk.

All Bills to incorporate or amend Bills incorporating railway companies are to be drawn in accordance with the Model Bill.

The provisions contained in any Bill which are not in accord with the Model Bill shall be inserted between brackets.

Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any such Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for the same.

In the case of Bills to Incorporate Companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 72, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

Every Petition for a Bill to incorporate a company shall state the name of the proposed company.

Petition signed by agents or attorneys must be accompanied by the authority of such agent, etc.

Dated October 30th, 1922.

DOMINION ORDERS IN COUNCIL.

P.C. No. 106.

CERTIFIED TO BE A TRUE COPY OF A MINUTE OF A MEETING OF THE COMMITTEE OF THE PRIVY COUNCIL, APPROVED BY HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL, ON THE 22ND JANUARY, 1927.

THE Committee of the Privy Council have had before them a report, dated 17th January, 1927, from the Minister of the Interior, stating that by Order in Council of the 18th June, 1925, the Abernethy-Lougheed Logging Company, Limited, large operators in the vicinity of Stave Lake, in the Railway Belt, in the Province of British Columbia, were granted permission to export certain cedar timber; and by Order in Council of the 2nd February, 1926, this Company were granted an extension of time within which to export such timber, subject to dues at $2 per thousand feet B.M. on logs grading No. 1, $1.50 per thousand feet B.M. on logs grading No. 2, and $1 per thousand feet

B.M. on logs grading No. 3, this extension expiring on the 1st October, 1926.

It has been represented that the Company have an accumulation of some six million feet of cedar logs, for which they cannot find a ready market, especially for the lower grades, and they ask to be allowed to export the same; and as it has been represented that the local conditions have not improved, the Minister recommends that a further extension of six months be granted, allowing the Company to export cedar logs, subject to the payment of dues at $2.50 per thousand feet B.M. on logs grading No. 1, $2 per thousand feet B.M. on logs grading No. 2, and $1.50 per thousand feet B.M. on logs grading No. 3, which rates are in excess of those charged under the regulations governing the disposal of timber cut from licence berths on Dominion lands.

The Minister further recommends that this privilege be subject to such regulations as he may determine, the local mills to be first given an opportunity of acquiring any portion of the cut that may be required for manufacturing locally.

The Committee concur in the foregoing recommendations and submit the same for approval.

(Signed) E. J. LEMAIRE.
Clerk of the Privy Council.

To the Honourable

The Minister of the Interior.

(h.) To pay expenses of and incidental to the foundation and incorporation of the Company, and to remunerate any promoter or director or any other person or persons for services rendered in and about the formation or promotion of the Company or the conduct of its business, and such payment and remuneration may be in cash, or by the allotment of fully paid-up shares of the Company, or in any other manner as the Company may determine:

(i.) To borrow and raise money in such manner and upon such security as the Company shall think fit, and in particular by the issue of preference shares or debentures charged upon the whole or any part of the Company's property, both present and future, including its uncalled capital (if any), and to grant mortgages, bills of sale, debentures, and other securities for the same, and to redeem or pay off such securities:

(j.) To distribute any of the property of the Company amongst the members in specie:

(k.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(l.) To sell by public auction the fruit or other farm produce owned or held for sale by the Company, and for such purposes to carry on the business of auctioneers, and to acquire or hold an interest in any firm or company whose business consists wholly or in part of selling fruit or other farm produce by public auction:

(m.) To effect insurance in any insurance company authorized to transact business in Canada against loss by any means whatever for any fruit or other farm produce held or owned by or consigned to the Company while in transit or in storage, and to pay necessary premium or premiums therefor in cash or by means of a definite fund or percentage on such fruit or farm produce to be formed and set aside for that purpose:

(n.) To purchase, lease, or otherwise acquire, and to hold, improve, manage, exchange, work, develop, exercise all rights in respect of, lease, mortgage, sell, dispose of, turn to account, and otherwise deal with all kinds of real and personal property:

(o.) To draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, execute, and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, debentures, and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(p.) To do all or any of the above things as principals, agents, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others:

(q.) Generally to do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them.

The objects set forth in any subclause of this clause shall not, except when the context expressly so requires, be in anywise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other subclause or by the name of the Company, but may be carried out in as full and ample a manner and construed in as wide a sense as if each of the said paragraphs defined the objects of a separate, distinct, and independent company.

To acquire all or any part of the business and assets and assume any or all liabilities of the business heretofore conducted under the name of "Dawson, Wade & Company, Engineers and Contractors," and to enter into all sufficient agreements, and to pay for the same in cash or in shares of the Company, or both:

(b.) To carry on business as general contractors:

(c.) To construct, execute, equip, improve, work, develop, administer, manage, control, acquire, and dispose of any or all interests in public or private works, including (without restricting the generality of the foregoing) tramways, roads, bridges, viaducts, embankments, dams, pavements, ditches, buildings, docks, reservoirs, canals, gas, electric and power works, boats, barges, vessels, and machinery, irrigation-works, reclamations, sewerage, drainage, or sanitary, power-supply, and tunnels:

(d.) To acquire in any manner and dispose of in any manner real and personal property of all kinds, contracts, easements, undertakings, shares, securities, fixtures, easements, and rights-of-way; to improve, manage, turn to account, and develop resources, lands, interests in land, timber, mines, fisheries, power, water, shipping, and generally real and personal property and any interest therein:

(e.) To acquire in any manner, build, equip, manage, dispose of townsites, hotels, lodging and boarding houses, stores and buildings:

(f.) To act as storekeepers, wholesale and retail merchants, commission agents, land and insurance brokers, forwarding and commission agents, auctioneers, fishermen, farmers, engineers (subject to the "Engineering Act"), manufacturers of machinery, smiths, wood-workers, painters, loggers, lumbermen, quarrymen, and common carriers, charterers, warehousemen and wharfingers, miners and metallurgists, and to repair, convert, alter, let on hire or otherwise, and deal in machinery and hardware of all kinds:

(g.) To carry on the business of contractors and suppliers of electricity, heat, light, power, and water:

(h.) To have the powers as far as applicable regarding mines and minerals as set forth in subsection (2) of section 21 of the "Companies Act":

(i.) To allot and issue, for any interest or property acquired by the Company, fully paid-up shares of the Company as the whole or part of the purchase price thereof or for other consideration:

(j.) To acquire or undertake the whole or any part of the business, property, and liabilities of any person or company carrying on any business which the Company is authorized to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of the Company:

(k.) To take or otherwise acquire and hold shares in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company:

(l.) To enter into any arrangements with any Governments or authorities (supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise) that may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such Government or authority any rights, privileges, and concessions which the Company may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(n.) To lend money to such persons and on such lawful terms as may seem expedient, and in particular to customers and others having dealings with the Company, and to guarantee the performance of contracts or obligations of any person firm, or company in connection with the Company's business:

(o.) To borrow or raise or secure the payment of money in such manner as the Company shall think fit, and in particular by the issue of debentures or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, charged upon all or any of the Company's property, both present and future, including its uncalled capital; and to grant, execute, seal, and deliver mortgages, debenture mortgages, trust deeds, bonds, debentures, or other securities for the same, and to purchase, redeem, or pay off any such securities:

(p.) To draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, execute, and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, debentures, and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(q.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(r.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, enfranchise, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property and rights of the Company:

(s.) To do all or any of the above things in any part of the world, and as principals, agents, or contractors, and by or through agents or contractors, and either alone or in conjunction with others:

(t.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects:

(u.) To distribute any of the property among its members in specie:

(v.) To obtain the Company to be registered or licensed in any other province or country.

The foregoing powers shall not be deemed to give the Company any powers of a trust company under the provisions of the "Trust Companies Act," and of an insurance company, nor to conflict with the "Engineering Act."

(15.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire, and to use, grant licences or rights in respect of, or otherwise turn to account, patents, patent rights, licences, concessions, trade-marks, secret processes, British, Canadian, and foreign, as to any invention, improvements, or process which may be considered conducive to the attainment of any of the objects of the Company, or which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company:

(16.) Generally to purchase, take on lease, hire, or otherwise acquire, hold, maintain, and operate any real and personal property, wheresoever situated, and any rights and privileges which the Company may think necessary or convenient for the purposes of its business, and to sell or otherwise dispose of and turn to account all or any part of the same:

(17.) To establish and support or aid in the establishment and support of associations, institutions, funds, hospitals, stores, shops, and conveniences calculated to benefit employees or ex-employees of the Company, or the dependents or connections of such persons, and to grant pensions or allowances, and to make payments toward insurance, and to subscribe or guarantee money, or make grants of land to or for any charitable or benevolent objects or purposes, or for any exhibition, or for any public, general, or useful objects:

(18.) To construct, maintain, and alter any buildings or works necessary or convenient for the purposes of the Company:

(19.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required upon such securities and in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(20.) To acquire and carry on all or any part of the business or property and to undertake any liabilities of any person, firm, association, or company possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company, or carrying on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or which can be conveniently carried on in connection with the same, or may seem to the Company calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company, and to pay for any lands, business, property, rights, privileges, and concessions acquired or agreed to be acquired by the Company, and generally to satisfy any payment by or obligations of the Company, by the issue of shares of this Company or any other company credited as fully or partly paid up, or of debentures or other securities of this or any other company credited as fully or partly paid up:

(21.) To undertake and carry into effect all such financial, trading, or other operations or businesses in connection with the objects of the Company as the Company may think fit:

(22.) To subscribe for, take, acquire, hold, sell, and give guarantees by way of underwriting or otherwise in relation to stocks, shares, debentures, obligations, and securities of any company, or any supreme, municipal, public, or local board or authority, but not so as to conflict with the "Insurance Act" of British Columbia:

(23.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concessions, or otherwise with any person, persons, partnership, association, or corporation; to lend money to, guarantee the contracts of, or otherwise assist any person, association, or corporation, and in particular any person, association, or corporation being customers of or having any dealings with the Company, and to take or otherwise acquire shares and securities of any such person, association, or corporation, and to sell, hold, reissue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same, and to consolidate with or amalgamate with any other company having objects similar to those of this Company:

(24.) To sell, lease, exchange, surrender, mortgage, or otherwise deal with the whole of the undertaking and property and rights of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for any shares (whether credited as partly or fully paid up or otherwise), debentures, or securities of any other company, and to divide such part or parts, as may be determined by the Company, of the purchase-moneys, whether in cash, shares, or other equivalent, which may at any time be received by the Company on a sale of or other dealings with the whole or part of the property, estate, and rights of the Company, amongst the members of the Company by way of dividend or bonus in proportion to their shares or to the amount paid up on their shares, or otherwise to deal with the same as the Company may determine:

(25.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property and liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit this Company:

(26.) To obtain any Act of Parliament or to apply to the executive authority for any order for enabling the Company to carry any of its objects into effect, or for effecting any modification of the Company's constitution, or for any other purpose which may seem expedient, and to oppose any proceedings or applications which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to prejudice the Company's interests:

(27.) To enter into any arrangement with any Government or authorities (supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise) that may seem conducive to the Company's interest, and to obtain from any such Government or authority, or take over from other persons or companies possessed of the same, any rights, privileges, bonuses, or concessions which the Company may think desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(28.) To do all acts and things which may be necessary or desirable in connection with or to procure for the Company a legal recognition, domicile, and status in any colony, State, or territory in which any of its property, estate, effects, or rights may be situated or in which the Company may desire to carry on business, and to appoint local boards or committees, attorneys or agents, with such powers as the directors of the Company may determine, to represent the Company in any such colony, State, or territory:

(29.) To borrow or raise money for any purpose of the Company, and to secure the repayment of money and the interest thereon in such manner and in such terms as the directors may deem expedient, and in particular by the issue of bonds, debentures, or debenture stock charged upon the whole or any part of the undertaking, property, and assets of the Company, present or after acquired, including its uncalled capital:

(30.) To create, issue, make, sell, exchange, hypothecate, or otherwise deal with, draw, accept, endorse, discount, and negotiate perpetual or redeemable bonds, debentures or debenture stock, promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, or other negotiable or non-negotiable obligations:

(31.) To distribute any of the assets of the Company among its members in specie:

(32.) To pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses of or incidental to the formation, registration, and advertising of the Company, and to remunerate any person or company for services rendered or to be rendered in placing or assisting to place, or guaranteeing the placing of, any shares in the Company's capital or guaranteeing any debentures or other securities of the Company, or in or about the formation or promotion of the Company or the conduct of its business:

(33.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them, so that the objects specified in each paragraph of this clause shall, except when otherwise explained in such paragraph, be in nowise restricted or limited by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph or the name of the Company:

(34.) Provided always that nothing herein contained shall be deemed to authorize or empower the corporation to transact any business or to do anything whereby it may be brought within the scope of the "Trust Companies Act." 2533-fe3 and to subsidize or otherwise assist any such company:

(k.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property, rights, or liabilities of the Company, or for any other purpose which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit this Company:

(l.) To borrow or raise or secure the payment of money (with or without powers of sale or other special conditions) by a mortgage or charge on or deposit of any part of the Company's property of any kind whatsoever; to draw, make, accept, endorse, issue, execute, and discount promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, debentures, and other negotiable or transferable instruments, and to borrow or raise money on or by bonds or debentures charged upon all or any of the Company's property, both present and future, including its uncalled capital:

(m.) To pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses of and incidental to the formation, promotion, registration, and advertising of the Company, and to remunerate any person or company for services rendered or to be rendered in the placing of, any of the shares in the Company's capital or any debentures or securities of the Company, or in or about the formation or promotion of the Company or the conduct of its business:

(n.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, turn to account, dispose of, or otherwise deal with lands, rights, or other property or effects of the Company of any kind or nature whatsoever or any part thereof, or the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof, either to individuals, persons, or companies, with power to accept shares, debentures, securities, or obligations in other companies, and (in case of shares) either wholly or partially paid up, as the whole or part of the consideration for the above, and to hold, sell, or otherwise dispose of such debentures, shares, securities, and obligations as may be deemed most expedient, and to guarantee the repayment thereof or the payment of interest thereon:

(o.) To subscribe for, acquire by purchase or otherwise, hold, guarantee, sell, exchange, and deal in shares, stocks, bonds, notes, obligations, or securities of any public or private corporation, association, Government, or municipality, and while the owner thereof to exercise all the rights powers, and privileges of ownership as far as the law permits, including the power of voting and of giving any assent in writing or otherwise prescribed by law:

(p.) To enter into any arrangement with any authorities (supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise) as may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such authorities any charters, rights, licences, franchises, privileges, and concessions which the Company may deem advisable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with any such arrangements, rights, charters, licences, franchises, privileges, or concessions, and, if deemed advisable, to dispose of any such arrangements, charters, rights, licences, franchises, privileges, and concessions:

(q.) To procure the Company to be registered, licensed, or recognized in any other part of Canada or elsewhere where the Company desires to carry on business:

(r.) To amalgamate with any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to this Company:

(s.) To allot and enter into contracts for the allotment of shares of the Company as fully or partially paid up as the whole or part of the purchase price for any real or personal property, rights, goods, or chattels purchased or acquired by the Company, or for any valuable consideration, including services rendered to the Company, as the Company may from time to time determine:

(t.) To increase or decrease the capital of the Company, subject to the provisions of the "Companies Act":

(u.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them:

(v.) To distribute or transfer any of the property of the Company in specie among the members:

(w.) To do all or any of the above things in any part of the world, and as principals, agents, contractors, or otherwise, and by or through trustees, agents, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others.

The objects set forth in any subclause hereof shall not, except when the context expressly so requires, be in anywise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other subclause or by the name of the Company. None of such subclauses or the objects therein specified or the powers thereby conferred shall be deemed subsidiary or auxiliary merely to the objects mentioned in any other subclause, but the Company shall have full power to exercise all or any of the powers conferred by any part of these clauses in any part of the world, and notwithstanding that the business, undertaking, property, or acts proposed to be transacted, acquired, dealt with, or performed do not fall within the objects of any other subclause or subclauses hereof. 2569-fe10

I HEREBY CERTIFY that "Canada Agencies, Limited," has this day been incorporated under the "Companies Act" as a Limited Company.

The capital of the Company is ten thousand dollars, divided into ten thousand shares.

The registered office of the Company is situate at Vancouver, in the Province of British Columbia.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this fifth day of February, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-seven.

H. G. GARRETT.

Registrar of Companies.

The objects for which the Company has been incorporated are:—

(a.) To carry on the business of general mercantile agents in all its branches, or as manufacturers' agents, brokers, factors, or consignees, financial or estate agents, importers and exporters, marine or shipping agents, or any class of agency business that may be undertaken by a company incorporated under the "Companies Act":

(b.) To deal in, buy, sell, manufacture, alter, repair, or exchange all classes of merchandise so called, and all natural products of grain, roots, or fruit, or dairy, farm, factory, and mine products of all sorts, and to carry on any other business which may seem to the Company to be capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with the Company's business:

(c.) To buy, sell, exchange, or register patents, trade-marks, designs, or proprietary formulæ registered under the "Proprietary or Patent Medicine Act":

(d.) To act as agents for proprietary or patent medicines and to accept the responsibilities of such agents under the said Act:

(e.) To buy, sell, exchange, lease, mortgage lands or buildings, or both, and to erect, alter, and repair buildings:

(f.) To acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property, and liabilities of any person or company, wheresoever incorporated, carrying on any business permitted to or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of the Company:

(g.) To draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, execute, and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, and other negotiable or transferable instruments, and to borrow, raise, or secure the payment of money in such manner as it shall think fit, and in particular by the issue of debentures charged upon all or any part of its property, including uncalled capital, so, however, that the total amount borrowed, raised, or secured and outstanding shall not, without the sanction of a general meeting of the Company, exceed one-quarter of the capital for the time being paid up; but nothing in this clause contained shall limit or affect any power of borrowing vested in the directors under the memorandum of articles:

(h.) To promote companies for any purpose which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit this Company, or procure the Company to be registered or licensed outside the Province of British Columbia:

(i.) To do any or all of the above things in any part of the world either as principals, agents, contractors, or otherwise, and by or through trustees, agents, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others:

(j.) To distribute any of the property of the Company among the members in specie:

(k.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with the undertaking or the whole or any part of the property and rights of the Company, and to accept as consideration therefor shares, stock, debentures, or other securities of any limited company, wheresoever incorporated and carrying on any business, directly or indirectly, conducive to the objects of the Company, if such shares (except the shares of a company having non-personal liability), stock, debentures, or other securities are fully paid up:

(l.) To do all such other things as may be deemed incidental or conducive to the attainment of the objects for which the Company was formed or any of them. 2569-fe10

The objects for which the Company has been incorporated are:

(a.) To apply for, obtain, register, purchase, lease, or otherwise acquire, and to hold, own, use, develop, operate, and introduce, and to sell, assign, grant licences or territorial rights in respect to, or otherwise turn to account or dispose of any copyrights, trade-marks, trade-names, brands, letters patent of the Dominion of Canada or of any other country or Government, inventions, improvements, and processes, whether used in connection with or secured under letters patent or otherwise:

(b.) To procure the Company to be registered, licensed, or recognized in any part of Canada or in any other country, and to accept rights and powers to carry on its business therein:

(c.) To pay for any property acquired or work done or contract entered into, and in pursuance of any of the powers herein contained, the whole of the consideration therefor, or part, whether in cash or in fully paid-up shares of the Company:

(d.) To enter into any contract, written or verbal, with any corporation or person or persons in any manner, and on any terms as to pay or time of payment or otherwise, for the carrying-out of the Company's works, contracts, or agreements or any of them:

(e.) To enter into any arrangement for profit-sharing, union of interests, or co-operation with any person or company, wheresoever incorporated, carrying on or about to carry on any business, transaction, or undertaking which such person or company is authorized to carry on:

(f.) To accept in payment for any contract entered into between this Company and any other company or person, for any work to be done by this Company, money, lands, or any shares, debentures, or securities of any other company which in the judgment of this Company or its Board of Directors are deemed to be a fair, bona-fide equivalent for the price agreed upon:

(g.) To distribute any of the property of the Company among its members as specie:

(h.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with the undertaking or any part of the property and rights of the Company, with power to accept as consideration any shares, stocks, or obligations of any other company in whole or in part:

(i.) To pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses of or incidental to the formation, registration, and advertising of the Company, and to remunerate any persons or company for services rendered or to be rendered in placing or assisting to place, or the guaranteeing the placing of, any shares in the Company's capital or any debentures or other securities of the Company, or the conduct of its business:

(j.) To purchase, lease, or otherwise acquire and hold any lands, water rights and water privileges, factories, buildings, machinery, plants, stock-in-trade, or other real and personal property wheresoever, and equip, operate, and turn the same to account, and to sell, lease, sublet, or otherwise dispose of the same or any part thereof or any interest therein:

(k.) To purchase, lease, hire, build, and operate plants and factories for the manufacture of tractors, internal-combustion engines, Ballantine engines, acetylene gas, gas, ship fittings, fuel, carbide, carburettors, piston-rings, motors, engines, gas-engines, machinery, and agricultural implements of all kinds, and to buy, sell, trade in, and otherwise carry on the business of manufacturers of and dealers in the same, and all materials, substances, appliances, and things required for or incidental to the manufacture, preparation, adoption, use, and working thereof, or the packing, storage, or disposition thereof:

(l.) To adopt such means of making known the products of the Company as may seem expedient, and in particular by advertising in the press, by circulars, and by publication of periodicals:

(m.) To draw, accept, make, endorse, discount, execute, and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, debentures, stocks, and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(n.) To borrow or raise or secure the payment of money in such manner as the Company shall see fit, and in particular by the issue of debentures or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, charged upon all or any of the Company's property, both present and future, including its uncalled capital (so, however, that the total amount borrowed, raised, or secured shall not, without the sanction of a general meeting of the Company, exceed one-quarter of the capital for the time being paid up), and to purchase, redeem, or pay off any such securities:

(o.) To enter into any arrangement with any Government or authority (supreme, local, municipal, or otherwise) in any part of the world and with any corporation, company, or person that may seem conducive to the Company's interest, and to obtain from any such authority or person any charters, contracts, decrees, rights, privileges, and concessions which the Company may think desirable, and to carry out and deal with, sell, mortgage and hypothecate, and otherwise dispose of the same or any part thereof or any interest therein:

(p.) To do all or any of the above things as principals, agents, contractors, or otherwise, and by or through trustees, agents, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others:

(q.) Generally to make, do, and execute all such deeds, covenants, matters, and things as the Company may deem expedient, necessary, or otherwise conducive to the advancement of all or any of the above objects, or to the conversion or disposal of any security or property held or acquired by the Company, and generally to carry out any other business whatsoever which the Company may consider capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with the said business. 2569-fe10

(f.) To enter into any arrangement as permitted by the "Companies Act" with any Government or authorities (municipal, local, or otherwise) that may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such Government or authority any rights, privileges, licences, and concessions which the Company may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges, licences, and concessions:

(g.) To take or otherwise acquire and hold shares in any other company:

(h.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire any patents, brevets d'invention, licences, concessions, and the like, conferring any exclusive or non-exclusive or limited right to use or any secret or other information as to any invention which may seem capable of being used for any purposes of the Company, or the acquisition of which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company; and to use, exercise, develop, or grant licences in respect of or otherwise turn to account the property, rights, or information so required:

(i.) To acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property, and liabilities of any person or company carrying on any business the Company is authorized to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of the Company:

(j.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concession, or otherwise with any person or company carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction which this Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as to, directly or indirectly, benefit this Company:

(k.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required in such manner as may from time to time be determined by the directors:

(l.) To borrow or raise or secure the payment of money in such manner as the Company may think fit, and in particular by the issue of debentures or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, charged upon all or any of the Company's property, both present and future, including its uncalled capital, and to purchase, redeem, or pay off any such securities:

(m.) To remunerate any person or company for services rendered or to be rendered in placing or assisting to place, or guaranteeing the placing of, any of the shares in the Company's capital or debentures, debenture stock, or other securities of the Company, or in or about the formation or promotion of the Company or the conduct of its business:

(n.) To draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, execute, and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, debentures, and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(o.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company:

(p.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, enfranchise, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property and rights of the Company:

(q.) To do all or any of the matters hereby authorized in any part of the world, either alone or in connection with or as factors or agents for any other company or person, or by or through any factors, trustees, or agents:

(r.) To allot the shares of the Company, credited as fully or partially paid up, as the whole or part of the purchase price for any property, goods, or chattels purchased by the Company, or for services rendered to the Company, or for any valuable consideration as from time to time may be determined:

(s.) To carry on any other business which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with the above, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of or render proficient any of the Company's property or rights:

(t.) To promote, hold, underwrite, or float the stock, bonds, or other securities of any company or companies formed or to be formed for the purpose of acquiring or taking over all or any of the property and liabilities or assets of this or other companies or persons, or for any other purpose which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit the Company:

(u.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects:

(v.) And it is hereby declared that the word "company" in this clause shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body of persons, whether incorporated or not incorporated, and whether domiciled in the Province of British Columbia or elsewhere; and the intention is that the objects specified in each paragraph of this memorandum of association shall, except where otherwise expressed in such paragraph, be in nowise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph or the name of the Company.

CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION.

"COMPANIES ACT."

CANADA:

PROVINCE OF BRITISH COLUMBIA.

No. 9208.

I HEREBY CERTIFY that "Fraser River Bridge Company, Limited," has this day been incorporated under the "Companies Act" as a Limited Company.

The capital of the Company is fifty thousand dollars, divided into five hundred shares.

The registered office of the Company is situate at Vancouver, in the Province of British Columbia.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this second day of February, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-seven.

[L.S.]

H. G. GARRETT,

Registrar of Companies.

The objects for which the Company has been incorporated are:—

(a.) To lay out, erect, construct, establish, maintain, operate, and use a bridge for foot-passengers, vehicles, animals, and other things across the Fraser River, in the Province of British Columbia, together with necessary approaches, from some convenient point or points on the south shore of the Fraser River at or near Ladner or points on Lulu Island:

(b.) To levy and collect from passengers and for animals, vehicles, or things passing over the said bridge such tolls, rates, or charges as may be established by the Company under competent authority:

(c.) To construct, execute, and carry out, equip, improve, work, develop, administer, manage, or control works and conveniences of all kinds in relation to the said bridge, or which may be calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit the same or the business or the operation thereof:

(d.) To arrange with any Government, municipality, public corporation, association, company, person, or persons for the carriage upon and across the said bridge of any wires, pipes, electrical power, electricity, steam, water, or other material or commodity of a public or quasi-public character upon such terms as to the Company may seem fit:

(e.) To carry on the business of bridge-builders, bridge-owners, and bridge-operators, and any other business of any kind which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with the above, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights:

(f.) To acquire or undertake the whole or any part of the business, property, and liabilities of any person or company carrying on any business which the Company is authorized to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of the Company:

(g.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire any patents, brevets d'invention, licences, concessions, and the like, conferring any exclusive or non-exclusive or limited right to use or any secret or other information as to any invention which may seem capable of being used for any of the purposes of the Company, or the acquisition of which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company; and to use, exercise, develop, or grant licences in respect of or otherwise turn to account the property, rights, or information so acquired:

(h.) To enter into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concession, or otherwise with any person or company carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction which this Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company; and to lend money to, guarantee the contracts of, or otherwise assist any such person or company, and to take or otherwise acquire shares and securities of any such company, and to sell, hold, reissue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same:

(i.) To take or otherwise acquire and hold shares in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company:

(j.) To enter into any arrangements with any Governments or authorities (supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise) that may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such Government or authority any rights, privileges, and concessions which the Company may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(k.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property, rights, and liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit this Company:

(l.) Generally to purchase, take on lease or in exchange, hire, or otherwise acquire any real and personal property and any rights or privileges which the Company may think necessary or convenient for the purposes of its business, and in particular any land, buildings, easements, machinery, plant, and stock-in-trade:

(n.) To borrow or raise or secure the payment of money in such manner as the Company shall think fit, and in particular by the issue of debentures or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, charged upon all or any of the Company's property, both present and future, including its uncalled capital; and to grant, execute, seal, and deliver mortgages, debenture mortgages, trust deeds, bonds, debentures, or other securities for the same, and to purchase, redeem, or pay off any such securities:

(o.) To draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, execute, and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, debentures, and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(p.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(q.) To obtain any provisional order or Act of Parliament for enabling the Company to carry any of its objects into effect, or for effecting any modification of the Company's constitution, or for any other purpose which may seem expedient, and to oppose any proceedings or applications which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to prejudice the Company's interests:

(r.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, enfranchise, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property and rights of the Company:

(s.) To do all or any of the above things in any part of the world, and as principals, agents, or contractors, and by or through agents or contractors, and either alone or in conjunction with others:

(d.) To acquire or undertake the whole or any part of the business, property, and liabilities of any person or company carrying on any business which the Company is authorized to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of the Company:

(e.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire any patents, licences, concessions, and the like, conferring any exclusive or non-exclusive or limited right to use or any secret or other information as to any invention which may seem capable of being used for any of the purposes of the Company, or the acquisition of which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company; and to use, exercise, develop, or grant licences in respect of or otherwise turn to account the property, rights, or information so acquired:

(f.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing of profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concession, or otherwise with any person or company carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction which the Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company; and to lend money to, guarantee the contracts of, or otherwise assist any such person or company, and to take or otherwise acquire shares and securities of any such company, and to sell, hold, reissue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same:

(g.) To take or otherwise acquire and hold shares in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of the Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company:

(h.) To enter into any arrangements with any authorities (municipal, local, or otherwise) that may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them and to obtain from any such authority any rights, privileges, and concessions which the Company may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(i.) To establish and support or aid in the establishment and support of associations, institutions, funds, and conveniences calculated to benefit employees or ex-employees of the Company (or its predecessors in business), or the dependents or connections of such persons, and to grant pensions and allowances, and to make payments towards insurance, and to subscribe or guarantee money for charitable or benevolent objects, or for any exhibition, or for any public, general, or useful object:

(j.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property and liabilities of the Company, or for any other purpose which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit the Company:

(k.) To purchase, take on lease or in exchange, hire, or otherwise acquire any real or personal property and any rights or privileges which the Company may think necessary or convenient for the purposes of its business, and in particular any machinery, plant, and stock-in-trade:

(l.) To construct, improve, maintain, work, manage, carry out, or control any roads, ways, branches or sidings, bridges, reservoirs, water-courses, wharves, manufactories, warehouses, electric works, shops, stores, and other works and conveniences which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to advance the Company's interests, and to contribute to, subsidize, or otherwise assist or take part in the construction, improvement, maintenance, working, management, carrying-out, or control thereof:

(m.) To lend money to customers and others having dealings with the Company, and to guarantee the performance of contracts by any such persons:

(n.) To draw, make, accept, endorse, execute, and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(o.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of the Company:

(p.) To apply for, secure, acquire by assignment, transfer, purchase, or otherwise, and to exercise, carry out, and enjoy, any charter, licence, power, authority, franchise, concession, rights, or privilege which any Government or authority or any corporation or other public body may be empowered to grant, and to pay for, aid in, and contribute towards carrying the same into effect, and to appropriate any of the Company's shares, bonds, and assets to defray the necessary costs, charges, and expenses thereof:

(q.) To procure the Company to be registered and recognized in any foreign country, and to designate persons therein according to the laws of such foreign country to represent this Company and to accept service for and on behalf of the Company of any process or suit:

(r.) To raise and assist in raising money for, and to aid by way of bonus, loan, promise, endorsement, guarantee of bonds, debentures, or other securities or otherwise, any other company or corporation with whom the Company may have business relations, and to guarantee the performance of contracts by any such company, corporation, or by any such person or persons:

(s.) To adopt such means of making known the products of the Company as may seem expedient, and in particular by advertising in the press, by circulars, by purchase and exhibition of works of art or interest, by publication of books and periodicals, and by granting prizes, rewards, and donations:

(t.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property and rights of the Company:

(u.) To do all or any of the above things as principals, agents, contractors, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others:

(v.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects.

H. G. GARRETT,

Registrar of Companies.

The objects for which this Company has been established and registered under the above Act are:—

(a.) To enter into and carry into effect, either with or without modification, an agreement between The Dominion Iron and Steel Company, Limited, and the Company, a draft of which has already been prepared and for the purpose of identification initialled by two of the subscribers hereto:

(b.) To carry on all or any of the trades or businesses of timber preparers and merchants, timber importers, sawmill proprietors, tar-distillers, manufacturers of sulphate of ammonia and other chemical products, wharfingers, commission or general agents for the sale and carriage of railway and other materials, and for negotiating contracts for public and other works:

(c.) To purchase, hold, lease, acquire, and sell mines, minerals, and mining and other rights, easements, and privileges, and to mine, quarry, get, work, mill, and prepare for sale, by any process, coal, iron and other ores, and all or any other minerals or metallic products, and to manufacture therefrom any by-products, and to smelt the iron ores and other metallic substances, and to manufacture iron, steel, and any other products therefrom, and to trade in the products of such mines or manufactures:

(d.) To buy, sell, creosote, saw, plane, and otherwise prepare for market, and manipulate, import, export, and deal in, timber and wood of all kinds, and to manufacture and deal in articles of all kinds in the manufacture of which timber or wood is used, and to carry on business as ship-owners and carriers by land and sea, and, so far as may be deemed expedient, the business of general merchants:

(e.) To buy, sell, import, export, crush, win, get, quarry, pump, smelt, calcine, distil, refine, dress, manipulate, convert, manufacture, and prepare for market and deal in mineral, vegetable, and chemical substances of all kinds, and to buy, sell, manufacture, and deal in plant, machinery, implements, provisions, apparatus, and things capable of being used in connection with any business which the Company is authorized to carry on, or required or likely to be required by workmen or others employed by or customers of the Company, either by wholesale or retail:

(f.) To carry on the business of wharfingers, shippers, merchants, brokers, and carriers, and generally to carry on any business (manufacturing or otherwise) which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with any of these objects, or otherwise calculated to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights:

(g.) To own or be interested in ships, lighters, or other craft, and to carry on the business of ship-owners and lightermen, and to construct ships, lighters, or other craft:

(h.) To conduct chemical and other research, and to apply for, obtain and acquire, by purchase or otherwise, and use, license and dispose of licences, rights, concessions, privileges, and Acts of Parliament, or similar rights or authorities, as may be deemed advantageous to the interests of the Company, and to enter into and carry out any arrangements with any Governments or authorities which may seem conducive to any of the Company's objects:

(i.) To insure with any other company or person against any losses, damages, risks, and liabilities of all kinds which may affect this Company:

(j.) To construct, carry out, improve, develop, work, control, and manage any waterworks, gas-works, reservoirs, tramways, canals, bridges, roads, watercourses, furnaces, crushing-works, factories, and other works and conveniences which may seem, directly or indirectly, conducive to any of the Company's objects, and to contribute to, subsidize, or otherwise aid or take part in any such operation:

(k.) To acquire and undertake all or any of the businesses, property, rights, and liabilities of any person or company carrying on any business which this Company may be authorized to carry on, or possessed of property or rights suitable for the purposes of this Company, and to conduct the winding-up of any such company:

(l.) Generally to purchase, take on lease or in exchange, hire, or otherwise acquire any property or rights which may seem to the Company, directly or indirectly, conducive to its objects, or capable of being profitably dealt with in connection with any of the Company's objects, property, and rights for the time being, and in particular any land, buildings, manufactories, ships, telephones, machinery, rolling-stock, licences, easements, concessions, grants, monopolies, and decrees:

(m.) To become a member of and subscribe to the Federated Merchant Freighters' Association, Limited, and any similar association or associations calculated to benefit the Company; and to enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, or co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concession, or otherwise with any person, firm, or company carrying on or about to carry on or engage in any business or transaction which this Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company; and to lend money to, subsidize and guarantee the performance of contracts made by, or otherwise assist, any such person, firm, or company, and to act as agent of any such person, firm, or company:

(n.) To promote any other company for the purposes of acquiring all or any of the property, rights, and liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit this Company:

(o.) To acquire, hold, or dispose of any shares or securities of any other company, with power to distribute the same or any other property or assets of the Company in specie either by way of dividend or otherwise, but so that no distribution amounting to a reduction of capital can be made without the sanction of the Court:

(p.) To make investments of funds of the Company not immediately required, on such security, or to lend the same in such manner and form as may be deemed expedient:

(q.) To hold any property of the Company in the name of trustees or a trustee for the Company:

(r.) To do all or any of the matters aforesaid alone or in conjunction with or as agents for other companies and persons, and to establish, regulate, and discontinue agencies for the purposes of the Company:

(s.) To pay all the costs and expenses of and incidental to the formation and registration of the Company, and generally all preliminary expenses which may be or have been incurred in relation to the Company, and to remunerate any persons or person for services rendered or to be rendered with a view to the formation of the Company or the carrying-on of its business, or in placing or guaranteeing the placing of any share or security of the Company or otherwise howsoever in advancing the interests of the Company:

(t.) To borrow money and to secure the payment of any purchase or other consideration money by the issue of debentures, debenture stock, bonds, mortgages, or other securities for money, upon all or any part of the Company's undertakings, revenues, and property, including uncalled capital, or without any such security; to make, draw, accept, endorse, and execute promissory notes, bills of exchange, and other negotiable instruments:

(u.) To exhibit at any British or foreign exhibition any natural or manufactured products or articles which the Company prepares or deals in and any manufacture of process carried on by the Company:

(r.) To communicate with Chambers of Commerce and other mercantile and public bodies throughout the United Kingdom, and concert and promote measures for the protection of trade and traders:

(w.) To let, sell, or otherwise dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part or parts thereof from time to time for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, mortgages, debentures, debenture stock, or securities of any other company, and to amalgamate with any other company as regards the whole or any part of the business of this Company or of such other company:

(x.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with all or any of the property and rights of the Company, and so that any shares, stock, debentures, or other interests in or securities of any other company possessed by this Company may from time to time be sold with or without any guarantee by this Company as to dividends, interest, redemption, or otherwise:

(y.) To establish and support or aid in the establishment of associations, institutions, funds, and trusts calculated or intended to benefit any of the employees or ex-employees of the Company, or any dependents or connections of any such persons; and to grant to any such persons, dependents, or connections pensions or allowances, and to make payments for or towards the insurance thereof respectively, and generally to subscribe or guarantee money to or for charitable or benevolent objects, or to or for any public, general, or useful object:

(z.) To procure the Company to be registered, incorporated, or legally recognized in any colony, foreign country, or place, and to obtain any Act of Parliament or of any Legislature or any legislative decree or provisional order (in England or elsewhere) to enable the Company to carry its objects into effect or to modify its constitution, and to oppose any measure, proceeding, or application as may be thought desirable in the interests of the Company:

(aa.) To do all such other things, whether of the like or other sorts, as may be considered incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them, or to the conversion or disposition of any security or property held by the Company:

(bb.) To do all or any of the above things in any part of the world, and either as principals, agents, contractors, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others, and either by or through sub-contractors, agents, trustees, or otherwise.

H. G. GARRETT,

The objects for which this Company has been established and registered under the above Act are:—

(a.) To manufacture, buy, sell, and deal in all kinds of stationery, stationery supplies, office supplies, account-books, loose-leaf books of account, and loose-leaf systems of accounting; to carry on a general printing and publishing business and to carry on the business of accounting and auditing:

(b.) To carry on any other business, whether manufacturing or otherwise, capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with its business, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights:

(c.) To acquire or undertake the whole or any part of the business, property, and liabilities of any person or company carrying on any business which the Company is authorized to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of the Company, and to pay for same wholly or in part in bonds, debentures, or fully paid shares of the Company, and to sell, lease, or otherwise dispose of the same or any part thereof:

(d.) To apply for, obtain, register, purchase, or otherwise acquire any trade-marks, trade-names, processes, patents, licences, concessions, and the like, or any secret or other information as to any invention which may seem capable of being used for any of the purposes of the Company, or the acquisition of which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company; to use, exercise, develop, or grant licences in respect of, and to sell, assign, or otherwise dispose of, or otherwise turn to account the property, rights, or information as acquired:

(e.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concession, or otherwise with any person or company carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction which the Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company; and to lend money to, guarantee the contracts of, or otherwise assist any such person or company, and to take or otherwise acquire shares and securities of any such company, and to sell, hold, reissue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with same:

(f.) To take, purchase, or otherwise acquire, sell, hold, or otherwise dispose of shares of stock, bonds, debentures, or other securities in any other company, notwithstanding section 44 of the said Act:

(g.) To enter into any arrangements with any authorities (municipal, local, or otherwise) that may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such authority any rights, privileges, and concessions which the Company may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(h.) To establish and support or aid in the establishment and support of associations, institutions, funds, trusts, and conveniences calculated to benefit employees or ex-employees of the Company or its predecessors in business, or the dependents or connections of any such persons, and grant pensions and allowances, and make payments towards insurance, and to subscribe or guarantee money for charitable or benevolent objects, or for any exhibition, or for any public, general, or useful object:

(i.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring or taking over all or any of the property and liabilities of the Company, or for any other purpose which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit the Company:

(j.) To purchase, lease, own, hire, or otherwise acquire any real or personal property and any rights or privileges which the Company may think necessary or convenient for the purposes of its business:

(k.) To construct, improve, maintain, work, manage, carry out, or control any roads, ways, branches or sidings, bridges, reservoirs, water-courses, wharves, manufactories, warehouses, electric works, shops, stores, and other works and conveniences which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to advance the Company's interests, and to contribute to, subsidize, or otherwise assist or take part in the construction, improvement, maintenance, management, carrying-out, or control thereof:

(l.) To lend money to customers and others having dealings with the Company, and guarantee the performance of contracts by any such persons:

(m.) To draw, make, accept, endorse, execute, and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(n.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular

for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of the Company, if authorized so to do by the vote of a majority in number of the shareholders present or represented by proxy at a general meeting duly called for considering the matter, and holding not less than two-thirds of the issued capital stock of the Company:

(o.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property and rights of the Company:

(p.) To invest the moneys of the Company not immediately required in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(q.) To distribute among the shareholders of the Company in kind any property of the Company, and in particular any shares, debentures, or securities in any companies which the Company may have the power to dispose of:

(r.) To do all or any of the above things, and all things authorized by the letters patent or supplementary letters patent, as principals, agents, contractors, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others:

(s.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects.

The operations of the Company to be carried on throughout the Dominion of Canada and elsewhere.

The head office of the Company in the Province is situate at 531 Bastion Street, Victoria, British Columbia.

The attorney of the Company is John Young Copeman, of Victoria, barrister.

The authorized capital of the Company is £10,000.

The paid-up capital of the Company is £9,502.

The Company is limited.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this eighth day of February, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-seven.

[L.S.]

H. G. GARRETT,

Registrar of Companies.

The objects for which this Company has been established and registered under the above Act are:

(1.) To carry on the business of an investment, lending, mortgage, agency, or financial company, or to undertake or do, either as principal or agent, for any person or persons, or body of persons, or corporation, any loaning or financial business, or to do all or any of these things:

(2.) To purchase, subscribe for, or otherwise to acquire and hold, and to sell, traffic, and deal in real and personal property of every description and in any part of the world, and in particular lands, buildings, leases, businesses, claims, debts, rights, privileges, and choses in action; the shares, stocks, loans, bonds, obligations, debentures, debenture stock, mortgages, scrip, or other securities of any State, municipality, company, society, or undertaking in any part of the world; investments of every description, policies of insurance, goods, wares, inventions, patents or patent rights, licences, concessions, and the like, and merchandise of every kind and description; or any estate, share, or interest in, or sale agreements of, or options to purchase any of these, and to accept and execute transfers, assignments, and conveyances of all or any such property, and to carry on, work, or develop any business of any kind in which the Company may be interested, or concur with or assist others in so doing, or to employ others so to do, in any manner and on any terms that may be considered desirable, and also to expend money in experimenting upon and testing and developing or improving, or seeking to develop or improve, any property, rights, or others which the Company may acquire or propose to acquire:

(3.) To acquire any investments by original subscription, tender, purchase, participation in syndicates, exchange, or otherwise, and whether or not fully paid up, and to make payments thereon as called up, or in advance of calls or otherwise, and to underwrite or subscribe for the same conditionally or otherwise, and either with a view to investment or resale or otherwise:

(4.) To hold, improve, manage, sell, feu, lease, exchange, examb, mortgage, or otherwise use or dispose of any portion of the assets, estate, and effects of the Company, and to execute conveyances, transfers, or assignments of all or any such assets:

(5.) To develop the resources of and to turn to account the lands, buildings, rights, and other property for the time being of the Company in such manner as the Company may think fit, and in particular by clearing, draining, irrigating, fencing, planting, building, improving, farming, cultivating, grazing, mining, feuing, letting on building, mining, or other leases, and by promoting immigration, establishing towns, villages, and settlements, and by advancing money to and entering into contracts and arrangements of all kinds with builders, tenants, and others:

(6.) To acquire by purchase, lease, or otherwise stores or warehouses in any part of the world; to carry on the business of factors, warehouse proprietors and keepers, wharfingers and custodiers, and in connection therewith to grant warehouse-keepers' certificates and warrants, dock warrants, delivery orders, and other documents of title:

(7.) To lend money to any Government, public body, trust, or authority (supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise), company, partnership, person, body of persons, or association, with or without security, upon such terms as may be deemed expedient, and where there is security to take such, either in the shape of bonds, mortgages, mortgage debentures, or debentures, shares, or stock, or in any other form, and to allow time for repayment:

(8.) To guarantee or become liable for and to undertake obligations for moneys and for debts of every kind and description, or the performance of any contract or obligation, and to undertake all kinds of guarantee and underwriting; but nothing in this clause contained shall empower the Company to carry on assurance business of any kind, or to grant annuities within the meaning of the "Assurance Companies Act, 1909," as extended by the "Industrial Assurance Act, 1923," or to reinsure any risks under any class of assurance business to which these Acts apply:

(9.) To undertake and execute the office of manager or factor, and to perform and carry on the various duties and kinds of business incident to and connected therewith, and to collect, manage, use, deal in, and dispose of, for or on account of any corporation, company, partnership, person, body or persons, or association, any description of lands or movable property, or any right to or interest therein, or in doing all or any of the matters and things mentioned in this article, and that either gratuitously or on such terms as to agency and commission as may be agreed on:

(10.) To grant and issue to any person, firm, association, syndicate, or company, for whom the Company may act as agent, acknowledgements of moneys paid to the Company for investment, but so that the same shall not infer liability on the Company except to the extent of binding the Company to invest the amount so acknowledged on the security or securities specified in such acknowledgment:

(11.) To act as agents for any Government, public body, trust, or authority (supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise), or for any persons, partnerships, partners, associations, joint-stock and other companies, whether domiciled in the United Kingdom or elsewhere, and that not only in the conduct of any business, but also in the issue of shares, stock, scrip, and securities of every kind and description, and the undertaking and guaranteeing of such issues, and the guaranteeing to the holders the due payment of principal and interest, either or both, of shares, stock, bonds, obligations, debentures, debenture stock, scrip, and securities, and the making of loans upon the security thereof, either to Governments, public bodies, trusts, or authorities aforesaid, associations, joint-stock and other companies, or to private persons, partners, or partnerships, and generally to transact and undertake all kinds of agency business, whether in respect of agricultural, commercial, or financial matters:

(12.) To acquire or establish and carry on any other business or trade which the Company may consider desirable to be carried on in connection with any of the said businesses, whether of the same or of a different character:

(13.) To acquire by purchase, licence, or otherwise and to exercise and use patent rights or protection in any part of the world for any invention or process of manufacture, and to disclaim, alter, or modify such patent rights or protection; and also to acquire, use, and register copyrights, trade-marks, and trade-names in relation to any business for the time being carried on by the Company, and to grant licences to exercise and use any patents belonging to the Company:

(14.) To take and hold any property and effects, heritable or movable, real or personal, whether acquired in security or absolutely, either in name of the Company itself or in the name of a trustee or trustees, who may be either individuals or corporations; and the title of any trustee or trustees may or may not disclose the trust; also to transfer any assets of the Company in exchange for shares and (or) securities of any other company:

(15.) To draw, make, accept, endorse, and execute and to discount and sell promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, and other negotiable instruments and documents of title:

(16.) To borrow or raise money in such manner as the directors shall think fit, and in particular by way of discount, deposit, cash credit, or overdraft, or upon bond, debenture (terminable, redeemable, or perpetual), mortgage, bill, promissory note, or receipt, or by the issue of debenture stock, redeemable or irredeemable, or in any other manner; and to grant security for any such money, and by way of such security to assign, dispose, convey, mortgage, pledge, or charge the whole or any part of the undertaking, property, assets, or revenue of the Company, both present and future, including uncalled capital, or to assign, dispose, transfer, or convey the same absolutely or in trust, and to give to lenders or creditors powers of sale and other usual and necessary powers; and any debenture, debenture stock, or other security may be issued at par, at a premium, at a discount, or otherwise:

(17.) To buy or acquire the business, property, or undertaking of any other company, partnership, or individual carrying on any business which the Company may legally carry on, or in which the Company is interested as shareholder, stockholder, debenture-holder, mortgagee, or in any other way, or any part thereof, and to pay therefor in cash, or in shares, stock, or debentures, or other securities of the Company, or partly in any of such modes, and generally on such terms as the directors may approve:

(18.) To procure the Company to be recognized or registered in any British colony, possession, or dependency, or in any foreign country:

(19.) To sell, let, dispose of, or transfer or otherwise deal with the business, property, and undertaking of the Company, or any branch or part thereof, in consideration of payment in cash, or in shares or stock, or in debentures or other securities of any other company, or partly in each of such modes of payment, or for any other consideration, and upon a distribution of assets or division of profits, to distribute the price or consideration, howsoever paid or satisfied, or any other assets of the Company, amongst the members in specie:

(20.) To promote any other company, in the United Kingdom or elsewhere, for the purpose of carrying on any business which the Company is authorized to carry on or in which it is interested as aforesaid, or for acquiring or taking over all or any of the undertaking, property, rights, and liabilities of the Company, or for any other purpose which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit or to facilitate the administration of the Company:

(21.) To make gifts or grant bonuses to persons in the employment of the Company, and to provide for the welfare of persons in the employment of the Company or formerly in its employment, and the widows and children of such persons, and others dependent upon them, by granting money or pensions or otherwise as the directors shall think fit; and to give or make any donation, subscription, or other payment to any person, or public, trade, charitable, educational, or other institution, association, or objects:

(22.) To remunerate the servants of the Company and others out of or in proportion to the returns or profits of the Company, or of any particular business carried on by it, or otherwise as the directors may think fit:

(23.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits or interests with any person, firm, or company carrying on or about to carry on any business or transaction which the Company may legally carry on or enter into, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company:

(24.) To enter into any trade or other combinations or agreements with any other persons, firms, or companies, and to subscribe to any trade or other association:

(25.) To amalgamate with any other company established for objects similar to any of those for which the Company is established:

(26.) To apply for, obtain, or acquire Acts of Parliament, provisional orders, concessions, grants, powers, or covenants from or with Governments or municipal or other authorities or persons, or to subscribe to the expense of obtaining the same, either in the name of the Company or otherwise, as may be thought expedient; and to oppose any proceedings in Parliament or elsewhere which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to affect the Company's interests prejudicially; as also to support any such proceedings which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit the Company's interests:

(27.) Without prejudice to any other power herein contained or competent to the Company, but subject to the articles of association for the time being, to use any sum which may be set aside as a reserve fund, or special reserve fund, as working capital, or in any other way the Company may deem right or suitable, or to invest the same or other funds of the Company in such investments (other than shares of the Company) as the directors may from time to time think fit:

(28.) To pay the costs preliminary and incidental to the formation, establishment, and registration of the Company, and of the vesting in the Company of any property, and that out of revenue or out of capital:

(29.) To accumulate capital for any of the purposes of the Company, and to appropriate any of the Company's assets to specific purposes, either conditionally or unconditionally:

(30.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of any of the above objects, and so that the various businesses and objects specified shall be regarded as independent objects and in nowise restricted (except where otherwise expressed in the above paragraphs) by reference to the name of the Company or to the businesses or objects contained in any other paragraph:

(31.) To delegate to any other person, firm, or company, at home or in any part of the world, full power, as attorney or otherwise, to act on behalf of the Company in doing all or any of the above things:

(32.) To carry out any of the objects and powers as principal or agent, or along with any other person, firm, association, or company, and in any part of the world:

(33.) Nothing herein contained shall authorize the Company to act as a trustee or executor or administrator. 2579-fe10
